

DEVONPORT: Stories of Stuff

Container Number 3 by Sacha Cvetanovic

Where to begin,
The most random collection of items all somehow ended up in,
Container #3.
A Satellite Dish,
A Scanning Thermometer,
Radio Headphones,
A Precision Survey Fathometer,
Hockey Sticks,
A Megohmmeter MM29,
An array of Spotlights,
A Sonar Tester,
The Department of Biological Sciences' Hitachi Colour Camera,
One singular Pilot's Chair,
And a Life Raft.
With all of this it seems as if you could build a rocket to take you to the stars,
But instead it sits collecting dust in,
Container #3.
